

Xuzhou Medical College

About University

Xuzhou Medical University, situated in Xuzhou, a historical and cultural city in Jiangsu Province (eastern part of China, with less than three hours by train to Beijing at the north and Shanghai at the south), is an institution of higher education under the direct administration of Jiangsu Provincial Government. The history of XZMU could be traced back to Jiangsu Provincial College of Medical Policy and Management founded in 1934. In 1958, a branch school of Nanjing Medical College moved out to Xuzhou, known as Xuzhou Campus of Nanjing Medical College.

The school started its five-year undergraduate program in 1958 and master's program in 1985. In 1993, the school began its joint PhD training programs with some of the most famous medical universities and research institutions in the nation. In 2013, the school was authorized by the Degree Committee of the State Council to award doctoral degree. The school has 3 campuses, covering an area of over 1100 Mu (equals to 73 hectares).
